Magazine History

The Hockley Flyer magazine is an A5 size local publication for Birmingham's Jewellery Quarter, and was founded by Marie and Mark Haddleton in the mid 1980's, and in November 2018 reached its 400th issue, and still going strong!

Originally intended to be a single page 'flyer' with a few small ads and a bit of news, by the time word had got out the single sheet of paper or Flyer had grown into a magazine before the first issue was even published, so we had to learn about printing and publishing magazines - FAST

Print Frequency/Distribution

The Hockley Flyer is published 12 times a year, close to the 15th of the month,

The deadline for all copy including adverts and news items is the 25th of the month, preceding cover date i.e. 25th May for June.

It is mostly distributed around the Birmingham Jewellery Quarter plus subscribers in the UK, and an increasing online readership.
